

YMAGE Manifesto:

We, young people from three European countries, demand:

Let's focus our attention on gender issues and be conscious of what has happened in the PAST!

We want to see artworks with the aim of learning from the past. Stereotypes must remain in the past! Human society is evolving.

Let's denounce the advantage of men in society and how women fear judgement and had to hide behind male pseudonyms.

Let's focus on the representation of:

- people as human beings not as objects
- the pain of violence and discrimination normalized in the past - the progress achieved in gender equality
- the contributions of women in the past

Let's focus our attention on gender issues and be conscious of what is happening in the PRESENT!

We want to see artworks with the aim of increasing awareness on gender equality.

Let's denounce any display of inequality or gender-based violence, gender hypersexualization and fixed gender roles.

Let's focus on overcoming gender stereotypes, considering the impact art has on our society.

Let's focus our attention on gender issues and be conscious of what could happen in the FUTURE!

We want to see artworks with the aim of idealizing a new representation of gender equality where women and men have the same rights without discrimination.

Let's focus on contributing to a society without gender violence and where men and women can freely choose their role.

Let's denounce the risk that stereotypes persist in the future to minimize harm for future generations and create a new beginning.

Let's use art as a tool to raise awareness for a more equal society!
